KRDF SNOWDONIA CHARITY TREK

Saturday, 28th July 2018

CONGRATULATIONS ON CHOOSING THE KRDF TREK SNOWDON
THE EVENT OF A LIFETIME!!

Please find below our simple terms and conditions for your charity Trek. It is important that you read, agree, sign and return this document to us along with the registration document and fee. These documents are primarily designed to ensure your safety and wellbeing throughout the event. By completing and returning these documents and registration fee you are confirming your agreement to these terms.

FITNESS & MEDICAL CONDITION: Participants are responsible for their own medical condition. If you are in any doubt about your fitness you must contact your doctor before signing up for the event. Anyone suffering from any relevant medical conditions, illnesses or disabilities must let it be known at the time of booking, and anytime thereafter if their situation changes.

It is your responsibility to ensure you have the required fitness levels to undertake the event. By returning your registration document and registration fee you are confirming that you have consulted your doctor (where necessary) to confirm you are able to take on this challenge. It is entirely your responsibility to obtain this and KRDF accept no responsibility should you fail to obtain the appropriate doctor's approval to undertake the challenge.

The minimum age to take part is 16 years old. Participants aged under 18 must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

INSURANCE: This event is covered public liability insurance taken out by KRDF. We are not responsible for any loss or damage incurred as a result of you or your party not following safety guidance and advice, or any reckless behaviour, or for loss or damage to your personal possessions. You will be entering the Trek Snowdon at your own risk and agree that KRDF shall not be liable for any injury or loss that might occur as a result of participation.

We recommend participants take out their own insurance to cover them for the duration of this event in respect of the above. Your insurance should be in place when you register to participate so you can then be able to make a claim for the costs we have paid out on your behalf so that you can take a place on a future event.

PAYMENT & FUNDRAISING: By completing and returning your registration document to us with £20 Registration Fee, you are committing to the event and you must ensure a minimum of £80 in sponsorship is with the charity by the date of your Event. This does not include Gift Aid. KRDF reserve the right to cancel your participation should you have not paid the required fee.

EVENT RISKS: Due to the nature of outdoor activities a certain element of risk is inherent. KRDF reserve the right to cancel or change the route for safety reasons should climatic or any other unforeseen circumstances deem this necessary.

In the unlikely event your health and safety officer appointed by KRDF feels that you are unable to continue journey to Trek Mount Snowdon, then please consider his advice carefully as your safety and wellbeing is our utmost priority. KRDF will be organising this event following best practice guidelines and health and safety standards.

Participants must agree to abide by the decision of KRDF. Any participant who acts against the requests of the guiding staff is no longer deemed part of this challenge and become outside the realm of responsibility of the KRDF.

KRDF reserves the right to refuse any participant and/or team on the day of the event where they reasonably believe their presence may have a detrimental effect on the quality or safety of the event. Should such a situation occur the charity shall retain all sponsorship monies unless directly requested by the donor to return them, in which case we will refund each individual directly-

By taking part all participants confirm they are happy for any photographs taken during this event to be used by KRDF in any form.

USEFUL CONTACTS: All Participants are requested to keep the below numbers saved, in case a need arises to contact them. The below persons are appointed by KRDF with certain roles. You are requested to follow their guidelines to ensure safety of all participants.
